

I Chose You

Imperfectly Perfect Rescue Dogs and Their Humans

Carmen Leal

What Amazon Readers are Saying

“Carmen did a brilliant job of weaving a tapestry of tales/tails about our fur-babies. This makes a great gift - for yourself and others.”

“This collection of true dog/owner stories is heartwarming and well-written. It makes me want to run out and adopt a rescue dog. This a book for all dog-lovers or would-be dog-lovers.”

“Even if you don't want to rescue a dog this book is a joy to read, it touches the heart and the soul.”

“What inspires me the most while reading this book has been her natural storytelling gift. My word- does she have a sense of humor and the ability to write what I am feeling!”

About Carmen

Carmen Leal is a storyteller and the author of multiple books, articles, devotionals, and human-interest stories. Carmen relocated from Hawaii to Oshkosh, yes, there is a story behind the move, and has become an awesome dog mom. Carmen and her husband have become reluctant gardeners and know a crazy amount about Wisconsin weeds. She is the mother of two sons, two incredible grandsons, and Coconut, the best imperfectly perfect rescue dog in the world.
